Every year, someone has to cancel their trip for one reason or another, and unfortunately, it is not always possible to find a suitable replacement at the last minute, and the Club is not always in a position to refund all the money. Rarely, but surely, someone is injured or becomes sick during the trip and incurs significant medical expenses. The travel insurance can offset these risks at the cost between 5 percent and 15 percent of the total cost of your trip.

Many products “waive” pre-existing conditions and offer additional “Cancel For Any Reason” coverage, if you purchase coverage within 14-21 days of your deposit, but only then.

No coverage is included in the trip package price, but the tour operator is offering a Trip Cancellation/Interruption Insurance at the price of $174 pp; cancel for any reason coverage is available for additional $87. You should shop around, but if you are interested, please contact the trip leader to obtain terms, form, and payment instructions.

If you choose to shop around ...

- Sites like SquareMouth (<http://squaremouth.com>) or Insure My Trip (<http://www.insuremytrip.com/>) allow one to compare hundreds of plans from the top providers and buy immediately, and might offer options or prices better suited to your needs.
- Many credit cards, and organizations like AAA and AARP have their own offerings for the members.

In summary ..

You agree to the listed payment schedule and are aware of your options regarding trip insurance. You realize that certain coverage is only available if purchased within 14-21 days of submitting the deposit with this application. Unless otherwise stated deposits paid to secure reservations and any subsequent payments are refundable, less withdrawal/transfer fees, only insofar as the monies are recovered by the SSSC in accordance with the terms of the group contracts.

Skiing can be a hazardous activity ... and you absolve the Snow Searchers Ski Club, Inc., its Board of Directors, and its trip leaders from any liability in the event of an accident or injury to any persons whose names were submitted upon registration.
